Dean's Note

Dear Students,

It gives me immense pleasure to present the Student Placement and Internship Handbook of the School of Innovation and Management (SoIM). At SoIM, we believe that education goes beyond the classroom. We endeavor to nurture competent professionals, responsible leaders, and lifelong learners equipped with the knowledge, skills, values, and confidence required to succeed in a dynamic business environment.

The Placement Cell plays a vital role in connecting academic learning with the industry. Through internships, industry interactions, skill development, corporate engagements, and placement opportunities, we strive to prepare our students to meet the evolving expectations of the professional world.

This handbook serves as a guide to the placement process, policies, professional conduct, and student responsibilities. I encourage every student to read it carefully and actively participate in all career development initiatives.

Remember, successful careers are built through consistent preparation, continuous learning, discipline, integrity, and perseverance. As ambassadors of SoIM, let your professionalism and values reflect the excellence of our institution.

I sincerely appreciate the efforts of the Corporate Relations & Placement Cell (CRPC) and Faculty members for their continued guidance and commitment to creating meaningful career opportunities for our students.

I wish every student a successful placement journey and a rewarding professional future.
"Build your career with knowledge, lead with integrity, and grow with purpose."

With my best wishes for your continued success…….

Dr. Samala Nagaraj
Dean
School of Innovation and Management (SoIM)

Director – Placements Message

Dear Students,

The Corporate Relations & Placement Cell (CRPC) is committed to equipping every student with the knowledge, skills, and confidence needed to succeed in today's dynamic and competitive business environment. Through industry partnerships, internships, corporate interactions, skill development programmes, mock interviews, career mentoring, and placement opportunities, we aim to bridge the gap between academic learning and industry expectations.

This handbook provides a clear overview of the placement and internship process at SoIM, including the policies, procedures, and responsibilities, code of conduct, and professional expectations that guide your career journey. Students are encouraged to read it carefully and follow the guidelines to present themselves professionally to prospective employers.

Success in placements requires consistent preparation, discipline, professionalism, and a willingness to learn. Every workshop, mock interview, internship, and industry interaction is an opportunity for personal and professional growth.

Take ownership of your career, continuously develop your skills, embrace feedback, and approach every opportunity with confidence and determination. The CRPC will continue to support and guide you, while your commitment and perseverance will shape your success.

We sincerely appreciate the support of our faculty, industry partners, alumni, and the CRPC team in creating meaningful opportunities for our students. Together, we strive to nurture competent, ethical, and future-ready management professionals.

We are confident that you all will meet industry expectations and come out with flying colours.

I wish you all Good Luck!
With my best wishes,

Mr. Sailesh Kuturu
Director
Corporate Relations & Placement Cell (CRPC)
School of Innovation and Management (SoIM)

Assistant Director – Placements Message

Dear Students,

It gives me immense pleasure to welcome you to the Placement and Career Development journey at the School of Innovation & Management (SoIM).

At SoIM, we believe that placement is not merely about securing a job; it is about discovering opportunities, demonstrating capabilities, and building a meaningful professional career. We endeavour to provide students with the right exposure, industry connect, career guidance, and opportunities to translate their academic learning into workplace excellence.

The CRPC team works closely with students and industry partners to facilitate internships, pre-placement interactions, skill-development initiatives, recruitment processes, and career-readiness programmes. However, successful placement is a shared responsibility. While the institution creates opportunities and provides continuous support, students are expected to actively participate, develop relevant skills, maintain professional standards, and take ownership of their career journey.

We encourage every student to approach the placement process with confidence, professionalism, adaptability, and a continuous learning mindset. The corporate world is evolving rapidly, and today's professionals must be prepared to learn, unlearn, and relearn.

As women aspiring to become future business leaders, I encourage you to view every interaction with an organisation, every internship, every interview, and every challenge as an opportunity to grow.

A single placement opportunity does not define your career; it is shaped by the choices, capabilities, and values you build along the way.

I wish all our students the very best in their internships, placements, and future professional endeavours. May you step into the world of work with confidence, competence, and the courage to create an impact.

With best wishes for a successful career journey.

About the Corporate Relations & Placement Cell (CRPC)

The Corporate Relations & Placement Cell (CRPC) at the School of Innovation and Management (SoIM), serves as the vital link between academia and industry, fostering meaningful partnerships that enhance students' career readiness and professional growth. The CRPC is committed to creating a dynamic ecosystem where students are empowered with the knowledge, skills, confidence, and opportunities required to succeed in today's competitive business environment.

The Cell works proactively to establish and strengthen relationships with leading organizations across diverse sectors, facilitating internships, live projects, industry interactions, guest lectures, and workshops, corporate mentoring, management development programmes, and final placement opportunities. Through these initiatives, students gain valuable industry exposure, practical learning experiences, and insights into emerging business trends.

Beyond placements, the CRPC plays a significant role in shaping students into industry-ready professionals. It organizes structured training programmes focusing on aptitude development, communication skills, business etiquette, group discussions, interview preparation, résumé building, LinkedIn branding, and personality development. The objective is to bridge the gap between academic learning and corporate expectations while nurturing confidence, professionalism, and leadership qualities.

The Corporate Relations & Placement Cell believes that every student possesses unique potential. By providing continuous guidance, career counselling, mentoring, and opportunities for experiential learning, the Cell encourages students to discover their strengths, develop essential employability skills, and build successful careers founded on integrity, competence, and lifelong learning.

The CRPC also promotes collaborative engagement with industry through corporate networking, alumni interactions, academic partnerships, seminars, conferences, innovation initiatives, and global exposure programmes. These collaborations enable students to develop a broader perspective of the business world and prepare them to contribute effectively in diverse organizational environments.

With a student-centric approach and a commitment to excellence, the Corporate Relations & Placement Cell strives to ensure that every SoIM student is equipped not only to secure meaningful career opportunities but also to emerge as a responsible professional, ethical leader, and lifelong learner capable of making a positive impact on organizations and society.

Our Motto

"Connecting Talent with Opportunity, Building Leaders for Tomorrow."

INTERNSHIP POLICY

Each student will be provided one internship opportunity through the CRPC. The student is responsible for participating in the selection process and accepting the opportunity offered.

1. INTERNSHIP DURATION

- The internship will be undertaken after the successful completion of the Third Trimester.
- The internship duration should be a minimum of 60 days and a maximum of 90 days.
- Students must report to the college immediately upon completion of their internship,
- as per the schedule communicated by the institution.
- Students are not permitted to extend their internship with the organization beyond the approved internship period without prior written approval from the college.

2. CRPC SUPPORT

- The CRPC Cell will assist students in identifying and obtaining suitable internship opportunities.
- CRPC will make reasonable efforts to connect students with organizations offering internships.

3. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITY

- Students are expected to participate in the internship search and selection process actively.
- Students who arrange an internship on their own must inform the CRPC Cell and provide the required details.
- Upon completion of the internship, every student must submit the Internship Completion Certificate and the prescribed Internship Report to the Internship Faculty Coordinator within the stipulated deadline.

4. PPO – PRE-PLACEMENT OFFER

- If a company offers a Pre-Placement Offer (PPO) to a student during or after the internship, the student must inform the Corporate Relations & Placement Cell (CRPC) without fail and submit the relevant offer/proof within 2 working days of receiving the offer.
- A student who deliberately conceals a PPO and subsequently participates in placement drives without disclosure may be disqualified from further placement participation for the academic year, subject to review by the competent authority.

5. LIMITATIONS OF INTERNSHIP ASSISTANCE

- The CRPC will make every effort to assist students in securing internship opportunities. However, opportunities are subject to industry requirements, company selection processes, eligibility criteria, student performance, market conditions, and the number of opportunities available. In such cases, the onus lies on the student to secure a suitable internship.

6. AUTHORITY AND AMENDMENTS

- SoIM reserves the right to modify, amend, or update this Internship Policy whenever necessary in the interest of students, academic requirements, or institutional guidelines.
- Any amendments shall be communicated to students through the appropriate official channels.

PLACEMENT POLICY

1. The role of the CRPC – Corporate Relations & Placement Cell is to provide structured, fair, transparent, and merit-based placement assistance to eligible PGDM students. This policy outlines the eligibility requirements, placement procedures, student responsibilities, professional conduct expectations, and post-selection obligations governing the placement process.

2. The CRPC facilitates and coordinates placement opportunities but cannot guarantee placement, as the final selection depends on factors such as company requirements, eligibility criteria, selection process, student performance, and recruiter decisions, which are beyond the control of the CRPC.

3. SoIM follows the One Student - One Offer Policy to ensure equitable access to placement opportunities. Once a student secures and accepts a placement offer through the campus recruitment process, the student will ordinarily be withdrawn from further placement activities.
   However, SoIM reserves the right to permit participation in an additional opportunity under exceptional circumstances, including but not limited to: A "Dream Company" opportunity offering a compensation package of at least 75% of the value of the student's existing offer.

4. All Students seeking placement assistance must submit a soft copy of their updated CV to the placement department before the start of placements.

5. Students are expected to actively participate in placement opportunities aligned with their academic background, specialization, and career objectives. The Placement Department shall make reasonable efforts to align opportunities with specialization. If a student declines to apply for a Placement Opportunity despite being eligible, then a proper explanation to be given to the Placement Dept. through an email. If there are 3 such incidents of declining to apply for the Placement opportunity, then all placement assistance will be stopped permanently. The Placement Department retains the final authority to determine whether a role reasonably aligns with a student's profile.

6. SoIM will ordinarily facilitate up to three placement interview opportunities for each student. Students who are unable to secure an offer after three interview opportunities may be subjected to an individual review and further training by the Learning & Development Team. Upon satisfactory report from the L & D Team, further assistance will be provided. Further, two such cycles will be repeated. Upon completion of three total cycles, the placement assistance will be concluded. Any further assistance shall be at the discretion of the Placement Department.

7. Pre-Placement Offer (PPO) Policy: A Pre-Placement Offer (PPO) is a final employment offer extended by an internship host organization based on the student's internship performance.

8. PPO Guidelines:
   - Students must inform the Placement Department immediately upon receiving a PPO.
   - Students must communicate acceptance or rejection of the PPO within two (2) working days.
   - In case a student rejects the PPO, the student must submit an email stating the reasons for rejecting the offer. Further, rejecting a PPO is considered as one offer, and in future, the student will be eligible for only one Dream Company Opportunity.
   - An accepted PPO shall be treated as the student's final placement offer.
   - Upon accepting a PPO, the student shall ordinarily be withdrawn from the campus placement process.
   - Dream Company Exception - Students who have accepted a PPO may be permitted to participate in a Dream Company opportunity if the offered compensation is at least 75% of the value of the accepted PPO package, subject to approval by the Placement Department. CRPC records all PPO data.

9. Students shall not withdraw from an accepted offer. If students reject the accepted offer, they will be out of placements. Such actions adversely affect the institution's relationship with recruiters and may result in:
   - Debarment from future placement assistance.
   - Disciplinary action under institutional regulations.

10. Students should not directly contact company officials for any purpose, including forwarding resumes, internship opportunities, or dissertations. All communication should be channeled through the representative of the CRPC.

11. Students are expected to maintain decorum during interactions with company officials, such as PPTs and interviews. Punctuality is essential for PPTs, tests, group discussions, and interviews. Leaving the hall before the completion of a PPT is strictly prohibited and may result in disciplinary action.

12. Students found misbehaving with CRPC staff, student representatives, faculty members, or Heads of Departments will be disqualified from the placement assistance.

13. Students who withdraw after being shortlisted by a company at any stage will be disqualified from participating in the recruitment process of the next five companies they have applied to and been shortlisted for.

14. Alternative Role Offered by Recruiter: If a recruiter, after the interview or selection process, considers a student suitable for a different role than the role originally advertised, the student will be considered for the alternative role.

    Placement Record: Such an offer shall be treated as a valid placement opportunity/offer for the student under the Placement Policy. If a student withdraws from or declines the offer at this stage after being selected for the alternative role, the student may be disqualified from participating in the next five (5) company recruitment drives conducted through the CRPC.

15. Students should have sufficient copies of their resume, passport-size photos, etc., ready to submit as required by companies. Requests for resume printouts from the CRPC will not be entertained.

16. Students should not negotiate salary packages or job locations with companies unless specified in the job description. All negotiations regarding salary packages and job locations are handled by the CRPC.

17. Offers from a particular company will be announced at the end of the selection process, and all offers must go through the CRPC.

18. The final authority in case of any disputes will be the Dean, and his decisions will be final.

Career Counselling and Overall Development of the Students:

1) Inviting experts from across industries to provide guidance and insights to students.
2) Conducting guest lectures, workshops, mock interviews, and group discussions to empower and equip students to successfully pass the interviews.
3) Organizing personality and skill development sessions for pre-final and final year students.
4) Identifying the competencies and skills required for different job profiles.

Eligibility, Registration and Dress Code:

1. Students should register by submitting their information in the prescribed format provided by CRPC.

2. Students with three or more backlogs are not allowed to register for placements. They are advised to clear their backlogs before registering, unless they are extended students who have not completed their course/project requirements in their last two semesters.

3. The eligibility criteria set by visiting companies will be considered final.

4. A) Academic Requirements: Minimum aggregate attendance of 75%.
   B) Minimum 75% attendance in Campus Recruitment Training (CRT) programs and placement preparation activities. The students failed to meet the aforementioned criteria shall not be eligible for placement services.

5. Students are encouraged to apply for a passport and PAN card as many companies require these documents during the induction process.

6. Based on company instructions, students may be sent to attend pooled campus placement drives in other colleges. Students should inform their parents about the placement process, venue, and timings well in advance.

7. Carry at least five copies of their resume, photocopies of all original certificates, and five passport-size photographs.

8. Dress code: Western business formal attire
